TIMBUK2

SHOP

Timbuk2 supports community and environmental impact through initiatives that donate reusable bags to local partners and divert end-of-life products from landfill by recycling them into alternative energy or repurposing them for community use. Every year, Timbuk2 contributes over 1,400 used bags to a program that transforms waste into engineered fuel, helping reduce landfill use and lower emissions. timbuk2.com/pages/about-us

w&p

SHOP

W&P is passionate about food and ending food insecurity. That's why they support City Harvest, an organization that is rescuing surplus food and delivering it to those in need, through volunteer work and giveback opportunities. To date, City Harvest has rescued over one billion pounds of food that would have otherwise gone to waste and delivered it, free of charge, to food pantries and soup kitchens across New York's five boroughs. cityharvest.org/our-story

xd connects

SHOP

XD Connects supports Water.org by donating 2% of product proceeds from every item sold in the iqoniq and Avira collections, as well as products featuring AWARE™ tracer technology. Contributions have helped bring safe drinking water to more than 238,000 people. xdconnects.com/en-gb/water-org
